

INACAC Service Award Nomination Form

The INACAC Service Award is given to a member who has distinguished him or herself by exemplary service to the Affiliate. INACAC Service Award winners must have a minimum of 10 years of significant membership experience as a committee member, a committee chairperson, or an officer in INACAC or NACAC. Award winners must be nominated by peers. Members of the INACAC Nominating Committee, chaired by INACAC Past-President Mona Bowe, will determine the award winner after reviewing all nominations.
