Additionally, this position requires the ability to think critically and independently using problem-solving and judgment skills to make educated, professional decisions. The successful candidate will understand and support the benefits of a diverse campus community and value the perspective of others. This position will frequently engage with prospective students and their families in one-on-one meetings as well as speak to audiences as large as 1,000 or more on campus, around the state and across the country.

Required:

- Bachelor's degree.
- One year of experience in Customer Service.
- Excellent planning, time management and organizational skills.
- Excellent interpersonal skills and the capacity to relate well to diverse constituencies.
- Outstanding written and oral communication skills as well as a proficiency in computer technology.
- Knowledge of operations and dynamics of areas impacting the recruitment and retention of undergraduate students.
- Represent the University with tact and diplomacy at all times.
- Exceptional interpersonal skills with the ability to influence and build work relationships among a diverse workforce at all levels.
- Ability to lift and carry 10 pounds frequently and 20 pounds occasionally.
- Ability to work flexible schedule including some evening and weekend hours.
- A valid driver's license.

Preferred:

- Master's degree in education or counseling.
- Student Services customer service (Student Affairs practitioners provide services and support for students: academic advising, academic programs, teaching, career development, etc.).
- University admissions, student services, or event planning/management experience.

Additional Information:

- This position involves travel as well as evening and weekend work.
- A background check will be required for employment.
- FLSA: Exempt (Not Eligible for Overtime)
- Retirement Eligibility: Defined Contribution Waiting Period.
- Purdue University is an EEO/AA employer. All individuals, including minorities, women, individuals with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.
